Dear Parent/Carer,

I am delighted to be able to tell you that all of the paperwork is now complete and contracts have been signed for our conversion to academy status and, from next Wednesday, we will officially be Coomb Briggs Primary Academy, part of the Wellspring Academy Trust.

Over the next few days new signage will begin to appear around school ready for our launch day. This will be a day of celebration and excitement with the children taking part in activities and tasks to mark the start of our new journey with Wellspring.

New uniform can be worn from next Wednesday however, please remember there is no rush to buy it. Children can still wear the current uniform until September. Our second uniform provider will hopefully be on board next week or the week after and we will send details out as soon as we are able to.

We have a new website currently under construction which promises to be much more child friendly, vibrant and exciting! Our emails will also change and you will be notified of this as soon as they are in use however, the school phone number will stay the same. A new twitter feed will also go live and hopefully give you a better insight into life in our school.

We really hope that next week sees the start of a new journey to drive the school forward and put into reality some of the hopes and dreams for this amazing little school and the pupils and staff in it.

If you have any questions or queries please do not hesitate to contact the school office or myself.

Exciting times are ahead!!

Yours truly

Helen Redmond
